Flagstaff County, as nominated by Flagstaff Family & Community Services (FFCS), was chosen as one of 15 communities in Alberta to take part in a Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA) pilot project that focusses on mental health, mental illness and community well-being in Rural Alberta. Their goal is to support 150 rural communities, over the next 3 years, to develop community roadmaps and action plans through the Rural Mental Health Project (RMHN).

The CMHA's vision for this project is to support mental wellness in rural communities. This includes building community capacity to address mental health and creating a social infrastructure for community-led and owned plans and action. CMHA believes mentally healthy communities think broadly about mental health and mental illness- this includes, but goes beyond, access to treatment services...(think Ag/Community Societies, Service Organisations, and programs/committees such as "Building Blocks", "Spray Park", Early Childhood Coalition".

To that end, an Animator (Holly Bovencamp) has been trained and is preparing to form a coalition of interested persons to set direction, generate solutions and implement a roadmap/ Action Plan dedicated to supporting a mental healthy County. Roadmaps will identify existing services, community strengths, opportunities, promising practices and a set of key strategic activities to consider over the next three years and beyond. The coalition will also maintain ties with the Rural Mental Health Project to collaborate with other rural/remote communities across the province and will also maintain connection for additional training , resources and funding. The proposed schedule would mean two meetings (late Sept. and Oct.) before Holly reports back to the RMHN in November. Ideally, a Flagstaff Coalition would include people from all over the county, from all walks of life to participate. If you are interested, she would love to talk further.

For more information contact Holly @ 780.386.3795 or 780.385.3976 (FFCS Office). To check out the RMHN go to: ruramentalhealth.ca

and

No person shall place or leave an extension cord across any sidewalk or boulevard for the purpose of operating a vehicle block heater, or for any other purpose. (such as plugging in a trailer)

Join the Toronto Dominion Summer Reading Club at the Lougheed Public Library!

Dates are August 2, 9, 16, 23 from 2:00—3:30. Please call to register your child at 780-386-2498 - Ages 6—12, under 6—Welcome with a parent.
